

Changes of State

Note: Changes in state are physical changes. They are NOT chemical changes. There is no new substance.

ie: ice melting is a physical change. Ice is frozen water so it just melts to liquid form. It is still water.